

CONSERVATIVE PARTY SPRING FORUM 2019

OXFORD
23rd February 2019

Conservative Spring Forum Registration – FAQs

When is the Conservative Spring Forum?

The Conservative Spring Forum will take place on Saturday 23rd February 2019.

Where will the Conservative Spring Forum take place?

The Conservative Spring Forum will be taking place at the DoubleTree By Hilton Oxford Belfry.

Who can attend the Conservative Spring Forum?

Anyone who is a member of the Conservative Party and Members of the National Convention.

Do I need to register before the event to attend? Can I turn up on the day?

Everyone must register online before the event. Online registration will close on February 15th 2019, at which point if you haven't registered online you will be unable to attend. The Conservative Party reserves the right to close registration early if we reach capacity.

How do I register?

You can register at www.conservativespringforum.com. If you did not receive an invitation email please email registration@conservativespringforum.com

How much does it cost to attend the Conservative Spring Forum?

The Conservative Spring Forum is free to attend.

How do I get my pass for the Conservative Spring Forum?

All passes will be available for collection on site. This year passes will not be posted out.

I can no longer attend the Conservative Spring Forum, what do I do?

If you are no longer able to attend then please email registration@conservativespringforum.com to let us know.

What if I have special requirements in order to attend?

The venue has disabled access and a hearing loop for those who are hearing impaired, but if you require special provision to be made in order for you to attend the Conservative Spring Forum then please email registration@conservativespringforum.com so that we can make sure the requirements are in place prior to your arrival.

Who do I contact for other queries?

Please email registration@conservativespringforum.com or call 0207 984 8142